

September 29, 2014

Law360 Names Adrian Pruetz One of 20 Most Influential Women in IP Law

Related Attorney(s): Adrian Pruetz, Erica J. Van Loon, Andrew Choung, Rex Hwang

Related Practice(s): Intellectual Property, Litigation

Glaser Weil Partner Adrian Pruetz, chair of the Firm's Intellectual Property Department, was named by Law360 as one of the "20 Most Influential Women in IP Law." The criteria for this award includes winning significant cases, representing large clients, longstanding presence in the Intellectual Property field and strong references.

Ms. Pruetz and her experienced IP team at Glaser Weil — including colleagues Erica Van Loon, Andrew Choung, Mieke Malmberg, Charles Koole and Rex Hwang — have a winning track record in intellectual property trials, arbitrations and appeals nationwide. They represent well-known companies of national and international prominence in patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret litigation in California and throughout the nation.

To view the Press Release: click here.