

March 12, 2015

Partner Kerry Garvis Wright has been selected to serve on Law360's Media & Entertainment Editorial Advisory Board

Related Attorney(s): Kerry Garvis Wright

Related Practice(s): Entertainment

Partner Kerry Garvis Wright has been selected to serve on Law360's Media & Entertainment editorial advisory board. The advisory board is composed of respected and experienced attorneys in the area of media and entertainment. The board will provide feedback and recommendations on Law360's media and entertainment law coverage as well as insight on how best to shape future coverage.

Kerry Garvis Wright, a partner in Glaser Weil's litigation group, handles an array of entertainment litigation, ranging from copyright infringement to business disputes involving studios, production companies, talent agencies, and some of the most powerful players in the entertainment industry.