

April 7, 2017

Glaser Weil Welcomes Cindy Cohen as Partner in Litigation Department

Related Attorney(s): Cynthia M. Cohen

Related Practice(s): Litigation

Glaser Weil is pleased to announce the addition of Partner Cynthia M. Cohen, one of the top rated Business Litigation attorneys in Los Angeles.

"We are thrilled to welcome Cindy to Glaser Weil's team," said Patricia Glaser, Partner and Chair of the Litigation Department. "Adding her incomparable experience in the litigation and bankruptcy fields expands the areas in which the Firm is able to offer exceptional service to our clients."

Ms. Cohen has represented individuals, financial institutions, and other corporations and business entities in bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases involving antitrust issues, recovery on notes and debentures, breach of contract, misrepresentation, breach of fiduciary duty, and other business and commercial disputes. She has tried and argued a number of complex business and commercial litigation matters in federal and state courts. Ms. Cohen's combined litigation and bankruptcy background has resulted in her representation of debtors, creditors, creditors' committees and trustees in numerous bankruptcy and bankruptcy-related litigation matters across the country.

Ms. Cohen received her Cornell University, A.B. and earned her J.D. from New York University School of Law. She has been ranked by Chambers and Partners as a leader in Bankruptcy/Restructuring in California and been recognized by Southern California Super Lawyers.

To read Ms. Cohen's full biography, click here.