

December 5, 2017

Elisa Paster to Speak on Impact of Recent California Housing Legislation

Related Attorney(s): Elisa L. Paster

Related Practice(s): Government & Regulatory, Real Estate

WESTSIDE URBAN FORUM

Elisa Paster, a Partner in Glaser Weil's Government and Regulatory Law Practice Group, will be speaking at the Westside Urban Forum's December 15, 2017 event, "Sacramento's Solution to the Housing Crisis." This panel discussion will provide attendees with a glimpse into the legislative process surrounding the 15 recently passed bills dedicated to funding and facilitating the development of housing across California. The speakers will also assess how this year's legislation will impact the housing crisis in Los Angeles.

Panelists

Richard Bloom, Assemblymember, 50th District (Santa Monica)

Ken Kahan, Principal, California Landmark Group

Elisa Paster, Partner, Glaser Weil LLP

Brent Gaisford (Moderator), Director, Abundant Housing L.A. Rick Cameron – Managing Director of Environmental Affairs & Planning, Port of Long Beach

When

Friday, December 15, 2017

7:15-9:00a.m.

Where

The Olympic Collection
11301 West Olympic Boulevard
Los Angeles, California 90064

Click here for more information or to register.