

December 26, 2017

Glaser Weil Announces Lawsuit By BML Properties, Ltd. Against China Construction America, Inc. and Affiliates

Lawsuit Seeks $2.25 Billion in Damages

Related Attorney(s): Peter C. Sheridan, Pete Slevin

Related Practice(s): Construction

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26, 2017 — Attorney Peter Sheridan (Glaser Weil Fink Howard Avchen & Shapiro LLP, Los Angeles) today announced a lawsuit filed in New York County Supreme Court by BML Properties, Ltd. against China Construction America, Inc., CSCEC Bahamas, Ltd. and CCA Bahamas, Ltd., the primary contractor and its affiliates for the Baha Mar Resort in Nassau, The Bahamas. BML Properties, Ltd. owned the project, which was being developed by its subsidiary Baha Mar Ltd.

Below are the links to the press release issued today by BML Properties, Ltd. regarding the litigation and complaint:

Press Release: https://www.prnewswire.com/news-releases/china-construction-america-sued-in-new-york-state-court-for-engaging-in-massive-fraud-malicious-acts-of-deceit-and-interference-breaches-of-contract-and-other-wrongdoings-300575287.html?tc=eml_cleartime

Complaint: <https://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/fbem/DocumentDisplayServlet?documentId=v/D2RaOEK5XyhLFoTeykhg==&system=prod>

BML Properties, Ltd. is represented by Peter Sheridan and Pete Slevin of Glaser Weil Fink Howard Avchen & Shapiro LLP in Los Angeles.