

About Us - Distinguished Legal Counsel in California and Nevada

Glaser, Weil, Fink, Jacobs, Howard & Shapiro, LLP has gained recognition as an established, reputable, full-service law firm offering a full range of legal services to a diverse client base. With the majority of its 110 attorneys located in the Century City area of Los Angeles, California, and a recently established office in Las Vegas, the Firm's clients include international, national and local corporations and private entrepreneurs. The Firm represents clients' interests throughout California, the United States and the world.

Many of the Firm's attorneys have practiced together throughout their entire careers. The Firm recruits lawyers who are committed to providing personalized client service while obtaining successful results. This philosophy acts as a cohesive force in the firm. Attorneys are trained to think creatively, always with the clients' interests in mind.

Glaser Weil distinguishes itself among other firms through its close-knit collaborative style of practice, where lawyers work together as a team to obtain the best results. The firm is responsive to its clients growing and evolving needs, closely aligning with clients whenever possible. As an example, the Firm recently opened its first office in Las Vegas, to service the many real estate and litigation matters of Nevada clients.

The Firm's sophisticated local, national and international practice includes:

- Corporate/Transactions
- Entertainment
- Environmental/Energy/Utilities
- Green Building
- Hospitality/Gaming/Sports
- Intellectual Property
- International Business Transactions
- Litigation
- Real Estate/Land Use/Government Relations
- Taxation
- Trusts/Estates

The Firm represents many high profile clients, including:

- Major motion picture studios and entertainment companies
- National and local public and private utilities
- Major commercial and residential real estate developers
- Internet and technology enterprises
- Major securities and investment banking firms
- Banks, institutional lenders, foreign-based corporations and investors
- National and international manufacturing and distribution companies
- International gaming and hospitality enterprises
- Recording and performing artists
- Television and motion picture talent
- The country's largest waste management company

To discuss the firm's services further, contact us to schedule an initial consultation.