PARTNER ROGER HOWARD HONORED WITH TOWER CANCER RESEARCH FOUNDATION HUMANITARIAN AWARD

LOS ANGELES – The Tower Cancer Research Foundation (TCRF) has honored Roger Howard, real estate and corporate partner at Glaser, Weil, Fink, Jacobs, Howard & Shapiro LLP, with the TCRF Humanitarian Award. He was presented the award at the annual Tower of Hope Gala, which raises funds for TCRF, on June 13, 2010 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Mr. Howard was honored along with his wife Linda and firm client Brindell Gottlieb. Mr. and Mrs. Howard are active organizers and fundraisers for the Foundation.

"I am truly humbled to receive this award and receive great satisfaction from being involved with an organization that focuses on life-changing solutions," said Mr. Howard.

Formed in 1996, TCRF is a non-profit organization dedicated to clinical research, patient support and community education. TCRF has conducted over 400 clinical trials since its inception and also funds scientific laboratory research for physicians providing cutting edge bench-to-bedside care that will ultimately lead to further advances in cancer treatment.
