

Our Latest Industry Insights

Tax

January 20, 2017

The Impact of President Trump's Proposed Tax Reforms on Your Bottom Line

By: Barry E. Fink, Michael J. Chambliss

President Trump has proposed a number of tax reforms that would significantly change the taxation of both personal and business income. In particular, the proposals would broaden the income base and create significant nominal rate reductions on the income of businesses and high-income individuals.

TAGS: tax reform, corporate income tax, individual income tax, estate tax, net investment income tax