Glaser Weil Partners, Patty Glaser and Kerry Garvis Wright, with the assistance of associate Josh Schein, secured another unanimous defense verdict in a 13-day jury trial.

Our attorneys represented Mansour Fine Rugs and its principal, Ben Soleimani, against claims of pregnancy discrimination, wrongful termination, constructive discharge and related claims brought by a former employee. The damages claimed were in the $5 million range, plus punitive damages and attorneys' fees. The jury found for our clients on all claims after deliberating for less than half a day.

The plaintiff was represented by Lavelly & Singer P.C.
