Glaser Weil is pleased to announce that Real Estate Partner Peter Breckheimer has been elected into the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL), a premier organization of U.S. real estate lawyers. The coveted admission is by invitation only following a rigorous screening process.

Recognized for his outstanding legal ability, experience, and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law, Breckheimer is featured on a roster of less than 100 attorneys based in California.

Breckheimer focuses his practice in general real estate and specializes in commercial acquisitions, sales, leasing, development/redevelopment, and public/private partnership transactions. He represents owners, developers, private-equity investors, pension funds, lenders, and other sophisticated clients in all aspects of their real estate-related transactions.
