Insurance Litigation

Glaser Weil's Insurance Litigation group has a long-standing positive history of in-depth trial preparation and successful jury verdicts. Our attorneys represent both title insurance companies and their insureds in all aspects of insurance, real estate, mechanic's lien and land use litigation.

We also defend title insurers in defense of large bad faith actions. The Firm has extensive experience handling these matters throughout the United States, and is keenly aware of the unique legal needs of the insurance industry, including the importance of achieving success for clients while remaining sensitive to their budget.

The Insurance Department advocates that the best defense is to actively and aggressively control the course of litigation from Day One. Glaser Weil's attorneys recognize that applying pressure, from the outset of litigation through pretrial discovery and motion practice, often provides substantial savings and ultimately leads to either favorable settlements or verdicts. Insurance clients turn to Glaser Weil's insurance litigators when the risk is substantial and losing is not an acceptable option. We understand the stakes can be enormous in the insurance industry and that we need to move swiftly, wisely and expeditiously on behalf of clients every step of the way.
