Irish Legal 100 Honors Glaser Weil Litigator Peter Sheridan for the Fifth Consecutive Year

(LOS ANGELES—Nov. 3, 2017)

Glaser Weil Partner Peter Sheridan, Chair of the Firm's Construction Law Practice Group, was named to the Irish Legal 100 for the fifth year in a row. He accepted his award in Washington D.C. on October 26, 2017 at a reception hosted at the home of the Irish Ambassador to the United States, Dan Mulhall. The Irish Legal 100 is published by the Irish Voice, and has been awarded to Irish American judges and lawyers since 2008. The criteria for this award is based on the accomplishments and distinguished service of the nominee to the law profession. Mr. Sheridan's inclusion places him among the very best lawyers, judges and law professionals of Irish descent in the United States.

This year's Irish Legal 100 includes U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr., Associate Justices Anthony M. Kennedy and Neil Gorsuch, and numerous other federal and state court judges, legal and business leaders from insurance, financial, energy and manufacturing companies around the world, and presidents, deans and professors from some of the most prestigious Universities and Law Schools in the world.

Mr. Sheridan and his experienced Construction Law Practice Group at Glaser Weil – including colleagues Pete Slevin, Saul Breskal and Ken Whiting – have a winning track record resulting from the hard work necessary to succeed in these complex matters. He was recently inducted as a Fellow of the Construction Lawyers Society of America for his significant achievements in construction law. Mr. Sheridan's focus on construction has also allowed him to develop a specialty in construction disputes involving hotels, casinos and resorts, such as the Bacara Resort and Spa in Santa Barbara, Diamond Resorts in Kaanapali, Maui and Poipu, Kauai, City Center in Las Vegas, mega-resort Baha Mar in Nassau, Bahamas, and La Quinta Resort in La Quinta, California. Successes for resort owners in these locales, as well as for owners and architects of multi-billion dollar airport and other projects, continue to demonstrate how critical it is for clients to choose the hardest working legal team in the business.

While Mr. Sheridan focuses primarily on construction law, he and his team also handle eminent domain and inverse condemnation cases, among many other disputes he is asked to litigate for his diverse clientele.

Mr. Sheridan traces his roots back five generations to County Cavan, Ireland, from which his ancestors emigrated to New York in the early 1800s and then on to Iowa later in the century.

A Pacific Palisades resident and father of two, Mr. Sheridan, also serves, and has served, on boards at American Friends of the Hebrew University, St. Matthew's Parish in Pacific Palisades, Loyola High School of Los Angeles, and Willamette College of Law in Salem, Oregon, where he was a cum laude graduate in 1988 and Editor in Chief of the Law Review. Mr. Sheridan is a member of the California and Nevada State Bars and practices before and is a member of all the Federal courts in California.
