As a Partner in Glaser Weil's Real Estate Department, David Tabibian provides counsel and legal representation to his clients in virtually every facet of real estate from inception to closing. He has successfully handled and closed more than $4 billion worth of real estate transactions across the country. His success comes from his ability to aggressively pursue his clients' objectives while keeping all parties satisfied and focused on closing the deal.

Mr. Tabibian represents real estate developers, owners, operators, investors, funds, REITs, borrowers, commercial banks, private lenders, landlords, tenants, celebrities and high net worth individuals in all aspects of complex real estate transactions. These include acquisitions and dispositions, 1031 exchanges, construction and development, leasing, debt and equity financing, loan workouts and restructuring, and joint ventures. His practice has dealt with a variety of projects, including hotels, office, retail, industrial, multi-family and mixed-use projects, as well as residential properties and vacant land.

Mr. Tabibian typically takes on the role of outside general counsel for his clients, handling all matters from complex, high-dollar commercial projects to smaller residential deals. He has drafted and negotiated numerous purchase and sale agreements, various types of leases (including office, retail, industrial and residential leases totaling more than 5 million sq. ft. of space), complex settlement agreements, and loan documentation for more than $1 billion worth of sophisticated real estate and commercial loans (including traditional real estate, refinance, construction, bridge, mezzanine, asset-based and hard money loans). He also counsels and assists his clients in a variety of due diligence matters, including reviewing title and surveys as well as forming new entities.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Tabibian began his practice as a real estate attorney at the international law firm of Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP where he represented many Fortune 500 clients.

Mr. Tabibian received his law degree with honors from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, where he was an Editor for the Loyola of Los Angeles Entertainment Law Review and a member of the St. Thomas More Law Honor Society (Top 15%). He received his bachelor's degree with honors from the University of Southern California, Marshall School of Business, where he graduated cum laude, on the Dean's List, and as a Renaissance Scholar.

Mr. Tabibian is licensed to practice law and admitted in the State of California. He has been named in multiple years to the Southern California Super Lawyers Rising Stars list, an honor achieved by no more than 2.5% of the lawyers in California. He has also been selected by Super Lawyers for inclusion in the "Top 100 Up-and-Coming" attorneys in Southern California. In 2016, he was named as one of "The 5 Best Real Estate Lawyers in Los Angeles" by Investopedia's Real Estate Column.

Mr. Tabibian grew up in Santa Monica, California. During his free time, he is involved in the community as a cabinet member of The Jewish Federation (Real Estate & Construction Division) and the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC).
